Rendacium - Press Release

Rendacium are back with their second EP of 'Rough Demos' and it is by far their best work yet. Containing demos of tracks Pretty Girl in Red; Paris; Breakout; Chapter One; Picking Up the Pieces; and 11:57 this EP brings with it the attitude of punk rock combined with the catchy pop-styled melodies that are guaranteed to get you singing along.

Rendacium [Ren-Day-Sea-Um] are a 4 piece British Pop-Rock band from the East Midlands. They formed in early 2017 and have since been gigging across the country, written a number of original songs and released 2 original singles and an EP. They have gone from strength to strength performing at the likes of Burton's International Beer Festival, The Eyes Have it Music Festival and London's iconic music venue 'The Dublin Castle'.

The 'Rough Demos' - EP demonstrates the boys progression as both a band and as musicians. With the tracks of the EP being written by various members of the band 'with a maturity beyond their years' as said by Moonshine Magazine this EP is guaranteed to go down well with fans and audiences alike.
